

INTERNATIONAL
GRADUATE CONFERENCE
ON SOUTH ASIA

SCIENCES PO PARIS
9TH AND 10TH JUNE

Politics in South Asia

International and domestic dimensions

SciencesPo
ÉCOLE DOCTORALE

SciencesPo
CENTRE DE RECHERCHES
INTERNATIONALES

SOUTH ASIA
PROGRAM

NORIA
network of researchers in international affairs

Registration to this event is mandatory: please confirm your attendance at the conference at southasia@noria-research.com and bring an identity document

Conference Program :

Thursday, June 9
Room H101
28 rue des Saint Pères – 75006 Paris

Morning

Opening remarks by the key speaker

Panel 1 : A Gendered Perspective on Politics

From 9.25 am to 11.10 am

Discussant

Dr. Stéphanie Tawa Lama-Rewal (EHESS/CEIAS)

Presentations

Juliane Victor (Martin-Luther-Universität)

Women as Guerillas, Soldiers and Martyrs: the Visual Representation of the Female Fighter in LTTE Media

Rashmi Singh (University of Cambridge)

Gender and Party Organization in Indian Politics: the Question of Political Recruitment and Party Roles in the BJP

Afternoon

Panel 3 : Political Dynamics 1: A Top-Down Approach

From 2.00 pm to 4.10 pm

Discussant

Dr. Louise Tillin (King's College)

Presentations

Lipin Ram (Graduate Institute of Geneva)

Martyrdom and Democratic Politics: the Case of Communist Politics in North Kerala

Dishil Shrimankar (University of Nottingham)

Explaining the Growth of Regional Parties: Comparing Gujarat, Maharashtra and Madhya Pradesh

Sruthi Muraleedharan (University of London)

Performing "Vikaspurush": Modified India in 2014

Break (10')

Panel 2: Identities in Conflict and Security

From 11.20 am to 1.00 pm

Discussant

Dr. Samir Kumar Das (University of Calcutta)

Presentations

Smitana Saikia (King's College)

Making Peace Durable: a Comparative Analysis of Ethnic Conflict in India's Northeast (Mizoram and Bodoland)

Sajjan Kumar (Jawaharlal Nehru University)

Securitizing Muslim Identity: Interplay of 'Hindutva' and 'Homeland Security' Discourses in Contemporary India

Break (10')

Panel 4: Political Dynamics 2: A Bottom-Up Approach

From 4.20 pm to 6.00 pm

Discussant

Dr. Frédéric Landy, Paris 10 Nanterre La Défense

Presentations

Alva Bonaker (Göttingen University)

Politics at the Margins: a Case Study of the Indian Mid-Day Meal Scheme

Swann Bommier (Sciences Po Ceri)

Struggles for Employment in India's Industrial Development

Lunch Break (1 hour)

Friday, June 10
Salle de Conférence
56, rue Jacob - 75006 Paris

Panel 5 : Nationalism and Mobilizations

From 10.00 am to 11.40 am

Discussants

Dr. Lion Koenig (University of Heidelberg)

Presentations

Harikrishnan Sasikumar (Dublin City University)

Ethnic Mobilization and Identity: the Paradox of Kerala's
Hindu Nationalism

Koijam Pushparani (University of Hyderabad)

Nationalism and Print Media in Manipur

Registration to this event is mandatory: please confirm your attendance at the conference at southasia@noria-research.com and bring an identity document